

Common Types Of Dog Bite Injuries & How To Prevent A Dog Bite From Happening

Approximately 730,000 persons each year in US seek medical attention for a serious dog bite wound the majority of who are children and the elderly. Additionally, each year about 14 of all dog bite victims die from their injuries.

In California a dog owner is held responsible if their dog bites anyone, no matter if the dog has a history of biting or not. Whenever a dog has bitten a human on more than one occasion the city or state, attorney has the ability to bring an action against the dog owner.

Common Types Of Dog Bite Injuries

- ▶ Skin Tears/Lacerations
- ▶ Broken Bones
- ▶ Puncture Wounds
- ▶ Facial Injuries
- ▶ Bruising
- ▶ Dislocations
- ▶ Scratches
- ▶ Infection

Name Of Some Dangerous Dog Breeds

- ▶ Pitbulls
- ▶ Doberman Pinschers
- ▶ Akitas
- ▶ Rottweiler
- ▶ Siberian Huskies
- ▶ German Shepherds

How To Prevent A Dog Bite From Happening?

- ▶ Do not approach an unknown dog.
- ▶ Do not scream or run away from the dog if they are hunters in nature the animal could chase after you.
- ▶ Avoid making eye contact with an unknown dog, they can take it as a challenge and/or threat.
- ▶ If a dog approaches you remain still and calm
- ▶ If a dog does attempt to attack you or knocks you over, fall to the floor and curl into a ball covering your ears.
- ▶ If you are bitten by a dog, whether it is one you know or do not know, immediately seek medical attention and alert the authorities. If you see a stray or unknown dog in your neighborhood it is also important to alert the authorities.

Contact Sacramento Dog Bite Attorney

If you or your child suffered a dog bite, you have rights under the law. You may be entitled to compensation from the dog owners, the dog owner's landlord, or possibly even your own insurance company. Additionally, you may be able to see that the dog is removed from your neighborhood, or if necessary, put down. Our Sacramento dog bite attorney is very familiar with these type of cases, and represent victims in dog bit cases.

Call our Sacramento dog bite attorney Today!

800-939-1832

www.yorklawfirm.com

info@yorklawcorp.com

